CM offers 'Bagina' at KRS Dam

Mysuru, July 29 (RK&BCT)- Chief Minister Siddaramaiah offered 'Bagina' at the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam at Srirangapatna Taluk in Mandya District at 12.15 pm today, following traditional rituals performed by priests.

The 'Bagina,' placed on the traditional 'mora,' contained saree, a blouse piece, flowers, fruits, bangles, 'arishina-kumkuma' and rice. After the Bagina offering, Deputy CM D.K. Shivakumar, who also holds the Water Resources portfolio, prayed at the Cauvery statue located on the Dam premises.

The ceremony was attended by Agriculture and Mandya District Minister N. Cheluvarayaswamy, Mysuru District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, Animal Husbandry Minister K. Venkatesh and MLAs Tanveer Sait, Ganiga Ravi Kumar, Rameshbabu Bandisiddegowda, P.M. Narendraswamy and A.R. Krishnamurthy, among others.

As the dignitaries came, a team of priests led the procession, chanting mantras. Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy, the Mandya MP, skipped the event. He informed reporters yesterday that he would not attend due to his commitments in New Delhi at the ongoing Parliament session.

Although the event was scheduled to start at the auspicious muhurat of 11 am, it was delayed by an hour. The KRS Dam, filled to its full capacity, prompted the tradition of the CM offering 'Bagina' to the river, which is vital for the region and Bengaluru.

The tradition of offering Bagina was initiated by former CM D. Devaraj Urs in 1979. This is the sixth time the ritual has been performed in the last decade and the third time of Siddaramaiah. He previously offered Bagina in 2013 and 2014. Due to drought, the Dam did not reach its maximum level in 2015, 2016, and 2017. Despite returning to power in 2023, Siddaramaiah was unable to offer Bagina last year due to a failed monsoon.

Pray & then Loot!

Mysuru, July 29 (KS)- In a bizarre twist to a burglary, devout robbers sought divine intervention before committing a theft, performing a puja with lemons and other rituals before breaking into a house.

The incident occurred at Aishwarya Layout on the outskirts of the city on Saturday at the residence of Shanthakumari, an employee of the T. Narasipur Industrial Department Office. Her late husband had served in the Police Department.

Unlike typical burglars who rely on tools like duplicate keys and iron rods, these culprits sought blessings from above before embarking on their crime spree.

A CCTV camera installed at the house captured the unusual scene: The burglars performing a puja, crushing lemons, and prostrating themselves at the door before entering the home.

The robbery took place while Shanthakumari and her family were visiting the Shani Mahatma Temple in Bengaluru Rural district. The family returned late at night, unexpectedly encountering the burglars still inside the house.

The intruders, armed with lethal weapons, threatened the family members before fleeing with 100 grams of gold jewellery worth about Rs. 7 lakh.

In their haste to escape, the burglars left behind an iron rod, electrical equipment, and two bags. Upon inspecting the house, Shanthakumari discovered the theft and promptly informed the jurisdictional police.

The Mysuru Rural Police who have registered a case, have since launched an investigation into the peculiar and pious burglary.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

NOBODY HAS POWER OVER YOU EXCEPT YOURSELF: The power of the guru is nothing but the power of your imagination, and the real guru will make you alert about and aware of your own power. The pseudo guru will pretend that it is his power; it is your imagination, and you are free to give as much power to your guru as you decide. If you want to, you can give him all the power; it is your projection.

But imagination is a powerful faculty, the most powerful: reason is just impotent in comparison to imagination.

All that happens through imagination; nothing happens through reason. First, it happens through imagination; then reason comes in and figures it out; that's okay.

Reason comes only secondary: it gives explanations and analyses, makes things clear, and demystifies things, but nothing ever happens through reason.

All that happens is intuitive. It is your power; please don't bring that guru in! Nobody has power over you except yourself. You can give this power to somebody, and then he has power over you, but my work here is really to make you free of all kinds of gurus. I am not a guru, at the most a friend, and I would like you to be unburdened of all the gurus... and I am included. If you start giving power to me, I don't like it. It is your power. Because if I accept — and it is very flattering...

When you go and give some power to somebody, it is flattering to him; he will not be able to reject it. He will accept it with a smile. You are falling into his trap on your own. Why should he say, "This is your power?" Gurus have exploited people as much as leaders have...

In the East, we have two words: guru and satguru. The guru is just a teacher, and the satguru is the master. The master is one who makes you utterly free of all kinds of entanglements, who makes you really free of all kinds of bondage. He will not allow you to project any kind of image on him; he will not function as a screen.

It is your imagination, and that very imagination is telling you to go away, to do this and that. That imagination will create many troubles for you because the imagination is there, the power is there, but you are not yet in a state of meditation. Imagination becomes destructive if there is no meditative quality around it — then it can go berserk.

Imagination alone is dangerous; imagination plus meditation, then you are in the right balance. Then the meditation will never allow you to go beyond the limit and it will use your power of imagination in a creative way.

Just do a few meditations... You need meditation, you need it urgently. Put your energies into meditation, at least one meditation. —Osho in The Times of India

VOICE OF THE READER

Brindavan Gardens:

Keep it simple to give pure pleasure

Sir,

Brindavan Gardens, as the name suggests, was conceived and executed by Sir Mirza Ismail, who had a highly developed aesthetic sense of flower arrangement. The landscape was designed to create a fairyland of exquisite enjoyment.

The recent proposal by the Karnataka Cabinet to upgrade the gardens at KRS at a cost of Rs. 2,663 crore through a public-private partnership aims to transform Brindavan Gardens into a fantasy park, which deviates from its original concept (Brindavan Gardens at KRS Dam to be upgraded in SOM dated July 27, 2024).

The gardens' grandeur lies in the simplicity of its arrangement and variety, while the proposed fantasy park elements are a garish departure that detracts from the pure joy the gardens offer.

Visitors from around the world come to enjoy the beauty of the flower arrangements, not to rush through commercial additions like a helipad, a Cauvery promenade, cascades, a laser fountain and other attractions. These additions would rob visitors of the serene experience of leisurely strolling among flower beds and colourful and musical fountains.

What is needed is the maintenance of the existing flower beds to restore the gardens to their original grandeur. If necessary, some exotic flowers could be added.

Attention is drawn to the points made under 'Black and White' in Vikram Muthanna's weekly column, particularly the advice, 'First fix roads, then build amusement park.'

Roads, footpaths and drainage systems have been badly neglected. Prioritising development is crucial when considering new proposals.

Dangerously hanging tree branch in Chamarajapuram

Sir,

There are about 70 residents, including children, adults and elderly people, living in the Pinewood Park apartments, located just behind the Lakshmipuram Police Station on Dr. Ambedkar Road in Chamarajapuram.

During recent heavy rains, some branches from the trees on the footpath were broken. Despite our repeated requests, only some of the debris has been cleared by the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC).

However, a major branch, approximately 30 feet long and with a circumference of 30 inches, remains partially attached. It is uncertain when or on whom it might fall.

As our appeals to the relevant authorities have gone unanswered, we are at a loss for what to do next. Serious consideration must be given to removing this hazardous branch to prevent any potential harm. We hope this letter serves as a wake-up call for the MCC to take the necessary action at the earliest.

BJP-JD(S) employing blackmail tactics: CM

Former PM H.D. Deve Gowda's family acquired many sites during Puttaiah's tenure as CITB Chairman, says Siddaramaiah

Mysuru, July 29 (BLU&BCT)- Countering the BJP-JD(S) move to organise a padayatra from Bengaluru to Mysuru from Aug. 3 to 10, demanding his resignation over alleged scams since the Congress came to power in Karnataka, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah accused the BJP-JD(S) of employing blackmail tactics.

"They are fabricating a non-existent scandal. BJP has no ideology and has never been fair. I have handed over the MUDA scam for a judicial inquiry. What more do you want?" Siddaramaiah asked reporters.

The CM addressed the media at the Government Guest House in Nazarbad this morning.

Siddaramaiah had breakfast at Mylari Hotel before heading to Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam to offer 'Bagina.'

Rs. 4,000 crore during COVID-19

CM Siddaramaiah also questioned Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy's suspicion of the judicial inquiry, asking, "Do you know how much corruption occurred during their tenure? Did they ever order a judicial inquiry for any case? They misappropriated Rs. 4,000 crore during the COVID-19 period — was there any investigation into that?"

Siddaramaiah dismissed concerns about the MUDA scam, stating, "If I haven't done anything wrong, why should I be upset? In my 40 years in politics,

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Dy.CM D.K. Shivakumar, accompanied by Mandya District in-charge Minister N. Cheluvarayaswamy, Mysuru District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa and others travelling in a KSTDC luxury bus from Mysuru to KRS Dam this morning.

I've faced many such accusations. I will confront them politically. As for the BJP's padayatra, let them proceed if they wish. We will handle it politically."

He further said, "Do you know how many sites former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda acquired? During Puttaiah's tenure as CITB (City Improvement Trust Board) Chairman, Deve Gowda's family secured numerous sites. They should provide a list of these sites. Kumaraswamy received a MUDA site 40 years ago and even obtained an acquisition letter. How can he now falsely claim otherwise?"

Branding Karnataka as corrupt

The level of corruption during BJP's rule was evident to the entire country. Now, the BJP is attempting to paint Karnataka as a corrupt State, making efforts in Parliament to label Karnataka as such. Does the BJP have any sense of honour? he asked.

On the Mekedatu project, the CM asserted that Karnataka is prepared to build the Mekedatu Dam, but Tamil Nadu is opposing it for political reasons. He called upon the Central Government to intervene and stated that Karnataka is ready to proceed with the construction.

Responding to Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman's claim about industries leaving the State, Siddaramaiah claimed that industries are not only leaving Karnataka but the country.

Regarding the intentional boycott of NITI Aayog meeting, Siddaramaiah explained that it was not just him; other non-BJP State Governments also opted out. He questioned the value of attending the meeting when the State was not receiving fair treatment.

Introduce One Time Settlement Scheme for property tax payers

Mysuru, July 29 (GA&BS)-Former Mayor Sandesh Swamy has urged Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) to introduce 'One Time Settlement Scheme' for the benefit of property tax payers.

Sandesh Swamy

He was addressing media persons at Patrakarthara Bhavana in the city recently.

Swamy, also a BJP leader said "Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) has introduced One Time Settlement Scheme for the benefit of those owing property tax arrears till July 31, 2024. With Mysuru being the second largest city of the State, the new system should be extended to the city too, that would also boost the revenue of City Corporation."

Forty percent of the property owners are still not paying tax in the city, that is largely due to the rise in number of illegally developed residential layouts in MCC limits. The assurance to bring Revenue Layouts under Akrama-Sakrama Scheme remains on papers still and the State Government has failed to provide relief to the residents of such layouts to lead a life of content, alleged Swamy.

Had Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) discharged its duties of providing sites and houses to the beneficiaries, the illegal layouts would not have mushroomed in the city. Such unauthorised layouts are still coming up in Narasimharaja (NR) Assembly Constituency and surprisingly both MCC and MUDA are not acting against them, Swamy alleged further.

"Earlier, when I was MCC Mayor, the Council had approved to collect single tax from the dwellers of illegal layouts in the year 2010-11, against the Government's decision to impose double tax on them. The decision to collect single tax was taken in the interest of these dwellers, who mostly belonged to economically weaker classes and middle class families. However, the Government didn't give its consent to collecting single tax, so also for the implementation of Akrama-Sakrama Scheme," said Swamy.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah should take steps towards bringing illegal layouts under Akrama-Sakrama and also implement One Time Settlement Scheme for property tax payers, he demanded.

BJP leaders Murali, Bhanuprakash, Padmanabh and Smart Manju were present at the press meet.

Valmiki Development Corporation, MUDA scams

BJP-JD(S) 8-day padayatra from Bengaluru to Mysuru on Aug. 3

139-km march to conclude with a public meeting in Mysuru on Aug. 10

Bengaluru, July 29 (Agencies)- In their attempt to corner the Congress-led State Government over various scams, NDA allies BJP and Janata Dal (Secular) will take out an eight-day padayatra from Bengaluru to Mysuru from Aug. 3, covering a distance of 139 kms.

The padayatra will pass through the JD(S) strongholds in the Vokkaliga heartland of Ramanagara, Mandya and Mysuru districts. It will culminate with a public rally in Mysuru on Aug. 10 in which BJP's central leaders will also participate.

The padayatra is against the alleged irregularities in site distribution by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA), financial irregularities in the Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation, and diversion of funds meant for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

A BJP-JD(S) coordination meeting held in Bengaluru last evening, chaired by BJP State President B.Y. Vijayendra, decided to take out the seven-day protest march to put the Government on the mat. BJP leader and former CM B.S. Yediyurappa, JDS leader and Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy will launch the padayatra in Bengaluru and participate in it.

Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy, BJP State President B.Y. Vijayendra, former Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa, Union Minister Pralhad Joshi and Leader of the Opposition in the Karnataka Legislative Assembly R. Ashok, seen during the BJP-JD(S) coordination meeting held in Bengaluru yesterday.

Kumaraswamy and his Ministerial colleague Pralhad Joshi were present at the meeting. "We discussed the two alleged scams in detail and decided on the padayatra," Vijayendra told reporters.

"The ST Development Corporation scam has seen Rs. 187 crore, intended for the welfare of the Scheduled Tribes, misappropriated by the Congress Government, along with numerous other scams like the MUDA scam that runs into thousands of crores of rupees."

Regarding potential Government obstruction of the padayatra, Vijayendra asserted, "We will not be deterred. If the Government tries to stop our padayatra, we will continue. They have obstructed us before, but we are resolute this time."

Yediyurappa said the padayatra would attract thousands of people and appealed to people to participate in big numbers to remove the 'corrupt' government. "The protest will continue till the Chief Minister resigns. The issue has already been discussed in Parliament. The Chief Minister should resign if he has some honour," he said.

Pralhad Joshi said, ''This is a cent percent corrupt Government. Therefore, we will continue the fight to increase public awareness and will also take up this issue legally.''

HDK suffers nosebleed; rushed to hospital, discharged

Bengaluru, July 29 (Agencies)- Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy suffered a nosebleed while addressing the media about the BJP-JD(S) padayatra yesterday. He was immediately rushed to a nearby hospital.

The Minister's nose started bleeding in the middle of his address to the media. Footage from the spot showed his shirt smeared with blood. The Union Minister for Heavy Industries was allowed to go home after treatment.

Speaking to media persons after being discharged from the hospital and returning to his residence, Kumaraswamy said "I have undergone heart valve replacement surgery thrice and I take blood thinner medication to prevent clotting. It is common for me to experience nose bleeding when I am under stress and do not get enough rest. The doctors have advised me to reduce my workload."

He assured that there was no need for anyone to worry and also requested his party workers and supporters to remain calm. "As long as I have your good wishes, God's grace and my parents' blessings, there is no danger," the Union Minister said.

"The people have sent me to Delhi with their trust. I will not betray that trust. This is just a temporary issue. No one needs to worry. I need to take some rest," he said.

Pump House to KRS Dam decorated

The road from Pump House Circle to the KRS Dam was adorned with numerous flex banners featuring portraits of Siddaramaiah, Shivakumar and Dr. Mahadevappa. Every electric pole and roadside was decorated with these banners leading up to the Dam.

Tight security measures were in place at the Dam for the event, with mobile phone jammers installed due to the presence of VIPs. At the Dam entrance, folk performances were organised, including Dollu Kunitha, Patada Kunitha and the traditional Kodava Ummathat. The artistes had assembled early in the morning and waited until the dignitaries arrived. Fortunately, the weather was clear and there was no rain.

Typically, the area where the CM offers 'Bagina' at the Dam and the stage is decorated. This time, however, the entire Dam premises was elaborately decorated, including the walls adorned with Bhuvaneshwari (Kannada) flags.

A red carpet lined the walking path and the area housing the Goddess Cauvery Statue was also festively decorated with hanging flower garlands. German tents were erected across the stage and the public area to shield attendees from the rain.

The dignitaries, including the CM, elected representatives and officials, travelled in two KSTDC luxury buses from the Government Guest House in Mysuru to KRS Dam. Later, the CM, Dy.CM and other dignitaries travelled to H.D. Kote to offer 'Bagina' at the Kabini Dam.

Two-day seminar on 'Big Cat Conservation' at Zoo

The incidents of man-animal conflict involving leopard is more, as witnessed in several districts including Mysuru, Mandya, Bengaluru, Tumakuru, Kolar and Ballari in the State. That apart, we have spotted the movement of three to four tigers in the outskirts of Mysuru city, with one spotted near Srirangapatna, he said adding that recently, a tiger met its tragic end near Mandakalli on Mysuru-Nanjangud Road.

"The relocation of animals rescued in different operations and released in tiger reserves should also be discussed for posing several issues. During the seminars, we should also discuss about, where Section 11 of Wildlife Conservation Act, should be amended. If the leopard bred in urban areas are shifted to core areas, it will give rise to new set of problems. Hence, we should delve more into Section 11 of the Act, involving scientists, wildlife experts and senior officers, in the discussion," suggested Malkhede.

The issues related to tiger reserve areas and big cats conservation should be taken into serious consideration. As in last four to five Tiger Census, it has come to note that there has been an increase in tiger population across the country, including Karnataka. We should resolve to keep their numbers intact and throw more light on the conservation aspects of tigers, said Malkhede.

In his keynote address, Dr. Qamar Qureshi, Scientist, Wildlife Institute of India (WII), Dehradun said, "Apart from discussing about big cats and their conservation, we should also discuss about tiger corridors and re-linking them, to cater to the increase in animal population. The animal corridors should be maintained, as in the tiger reserves at Sariska in Rajasthan and Panna in Madhya Pradesh, when we laid more emphasis on developing grass lands, the whole scenario of the tiger reserves changed."

"Since 2011 to 2024, among the National Tiger Population, we have been witnessing several changes in the methods of documentation. Earlier, we were manually collating the data of tiger population in different languages and translated later to a single language, spending a significance amount of money and time. Now, with the help of Apps and Camera Traps, we have been estimating the tiger population, incorporating scientific method, making the complete report ready within a stipulated time," he stated.

Dr. Sunil Panwar, Member Secretary of Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK) said, the seminar assumes significance, as it is related to man-animal conflict and the scientific methods, ecological management and their role in big cat conservation.

The inaugural session was followed by a series of lead presentations and oral/ poster presentation on three themes of the seminar — "Ecology and Conservation," "In-situ and Ex-situ Management" and "Current Challenges and Future Prospects."

Mysuru Zoo Executive Director D. Mahesh Kumar was also present. The seminar will conclude tomorrow.

Rankireddy-Shetty's

Olympics match cancelled after opponent's withdrawal

Paris, July 29 (Agencies) - Injury withdrawals in men's badminton at the ongoing Paris Olympics have impacted the group-stage draw for the Indian contingent, but in a contrasting fashion. While Guatemala's Kevin Cordon's withdrawal due to elbow injury, left Lakshya Sen in a precarious spot in Group L of the singles draw, after his straight-game win in his Olympic debut was 'deleted', for men's doubles Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty, they evaded a similar fate after their opponent's injury withdrawal today.

The world No. 3 doubles pair was slated to take on Germany's Mark Lamsfuss and Marvin Seide in their second group game at the Paris Olympics.

Women's Pro Golf Tour - 2024

City's Vidhatri wins second title after turning Pro

Bengaluru, July 29- City's professional golfer Vidhatri Urs secured her second title after turning professional recently as she won the 10th Leg of Women's Pro Golf Tour at Prestige Golfshire in Bengaluru, here recently.

Vidhatri, who finished third and joint-third in the 7th and 8th leg of the Tour, won the 9th leg and before smelling victory in the play-off of the 10th leg.

The professional golfer, who started the day with a two-shot lead over the field, could afford a 2-over 74, but with Amandeep Drall of Chandigarh, playing a fine round of 2-under 70, the best card of the day, the clash headed into a play-off.

Vidhatri kept her nerves as Amandeep missed the fairway and did not recover. Playing the extra hole on the 10th, Vidhatri made a par, while Amandeep missed out. Vidhatri had just two birdies against four bogeys, while Amandeep opened with an eagle two on Par-4 first. She added three more birdies on third, fourth and sixth with a bogey on the Par-5 fifth.

Despite being four behind Vidhatri at the start of the day, Amandeep caught up with the leader halfway through the final round.

Amandeep and Vidhatri had two bogeys and one birdie on the back nine and ended in a play-off.

Paris Summer Olympics - 2024

Manu Bhaker wins historic bronze in air pistol event

Paris, July 29 (Agencies)- India's ace shooter Manu Bhaker etched her name in Olympic history as she clinched the bronze medal in the women's air pistol final yesterday, breaking a 12-year medal drought for India in shooting and becoming the first Indian woman to ever achieve this feat at the Olympics.

From the outset, Manu's performance radiated brilliance. Securing the third spot in the qualification round, she set the stage for a dramatic final. Her precision and poise turned the competition into a spectacle, as she fired back-to-back 10s, crossing the critical 200-point threshold, and thrilling the crowd.

In the event's climax, Manu's solid 10.1 shot momentarily placed her in second position, only to be narrowly edged out by South Korea's Kim Yeji with a 10.5. The razor-thin margin of 0.1 points underscored the high stakes and fierce competition of the Olympic arena. Despite the close call, Manu's composure and determination enabled her to secure a total score of 221.7 ensuring her the bronze medal.

This monumental achievement is not just a personal victory for Manu but a historic moment for India.

She is the first Indian woman in 20 years to reach the final of an Olympic shooting event and the first to claim a medal.

ACC Women's Asia Cup- 2024

Sri Lanka wins maiden title

Colombo, July 29 (Agencies)- Sri Lanka secured their first Women's Asia Cup title win yesterday, defeating India with a clinical run-chase in front of their home crowd. This was also just the second time in their nine final appearances that India failed to win the Women's Asia Cup. Previously, India had lost to Bangladesh by three wickets in the 2018 finals.

Samarawickrama was the Player of the Match in the Final, while Sri Lanka Skipper Chamari Athapaththu was the Player of the Tournament for her 304 runs and three wickets in the event.

Harmanpreet Kaur won the toss and elected to bat first in the final. India got off to a positive start, but Sri Lanka struck back in the middle overs, with the wickets of Shafali Varma (16), Uma Chetry (9) and Harmanpreet (11). Contributions from Smriti Mandhana (60 from 47), Jemimah Rodrigues (29), and Richa Ghosh (30) helped India to 165/6.

In response, Sri Lanka had an early setback when Vishmi Gunaratne was run out for 1. However, Sri Lanka's experienced skipper Chamari Athapaththu settled in and got good support from Harshita Samarawickrama. After a watchful start, getting only 28 runs in the first five overs, Sri Lanka took 16 off the sixth over.

The hosts made the most of this boost, and kept going at their target at a steady pace. Despite losing Athapaththu (61 from 43) in the 12th over, Samarawickrama (69 not out from 51) and Kavisha Dilhari (30 not out) helped Sri Lanka finish the game in the 19th over.

This win is another feather in the cap for Athapaththu's Sri Lanka. They won the Women's T20 World Cup Qualifier earlier in the year to qualify for the Women's T20 World Cup in Bangladesh. Prior to that, they had secured a 2-1 series win over South Africa away from home.

Lakshmana Rao and Jayappa Honnali reciting their poetries and singing them alongside popular singers namely Karnataka Sugama Sangeeta Parishat President Y.K. Muddukrishna, 'Jogi' Suneeta, Mangala Ravi, Nithin Raja Ram Shastry, Prof. A.D. Srinivas, David Prabhanjali, Rajesh Padiyar, Purushotham, Hamsini, Divya Sachidananda and Amulya. Singer Hamsini mellifluously rendered Amma Naanu Devaraane Benne Kaddillamma, a poem by Dr. Venkatesha Murthy. Prior to that, Murthy who addressed the audience, said that light music, which was earlier restricted for entertainment, has evolved as a form of art.

Explaining about the poem Amma Naanu Devaraane Benne Kaddillama, Murthy said "It's common to swear on God, but here the God himself is swearing, where one can see Lord Krishna himself speaking, a miracle that forms the crux of the poetry, which was penned 40 years ago."

Singer Nithin Raja Ram Shastry rendered the song 'Irabeku Iruvanthe Thoredu Saavira Chinte,' penned by Murthy again. Murthy said, it was written two years ago and 65 lakh people have heard it on YouTube.

Singer Divya rendered Amma Ninna Edeyaladalli Gaalakke Sikka Meenu, Midukaduthiruve Naanu,' a poetry by Lakshman Rao. Prior to the rendition of the song, Rao said, there is a mention of both Mother and Mother Earth in the poetry, the fame of which has even reached Kannadigas in the country and also those staying abroad. "The Parishat is working towards developing this particular art form further and have hosted several programmes to kindle interest among youths about this art form. Beginning next year, four programmes will be organised every year," he added.

Music patron Sreekanta Jois said, the event was incredibly well-attended, with the hall packed to capacity.

The audience remained enthralled until the very end and the sumptuous food added to the delight.

"We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Mysore District Sugama Sangeetha Parishat President Nagaraja Bairy and all the organisers who collaborated with him, to make this programme a resounding success," Sreekanta Jois added.

Music Varsity flayed for exam mess

Mysuru, July 29 (PM&BS)- President of Karnataka Sugama Sangeetha Parishat, Y.K. Muddukrishna came down heavily on Karnataka State Dr. Gangubai Hangal Music and Performing Arts University, Mysuru, for not providing answer booklet for the students who appeared for exams, in Bengaluru on Saturday.

Venting his anguish, Muddukrishna said, "The students appearing for the exams were not even provided white sheets, which I condemn strongly. I have been writing to the Music Varsity for the past several years, seeking to entrust the task of preparing the syllabus related to music and also to revise the same, to a senior artiste like me, but in vain."

The present Government, including the Minister, lacks any interest towards promoting art, culture and literature. Even in the matter of releasing aid to associations and organisations, there is a reluctance among the authorities, rued Muddukrishna.

Sugama Sangeetha Parishat has organised 10 conferences so far and the State-level conference will be organised in Mysuru city in 2025, said Muddukrishna.

WORD OF THE DAY

Herald

Pronunciation: HAIR-uld (Verb)
Meaning: Herald is a verb meaning "to give notice of"; it is synonymous with announce, publicise, and foreshadow. Herald may also mean "to greet especially with enthusiasm."
Origin: While herald the verb is more common today, herald the noun is older. When the word was first welcomed into English in the early 14th century, it referred to an official at a tournament (one of those knightly sporting events the Middle Ages are famous for). The herald's duties included making announcements, hence the word's uses relating to announcements both literal and metaphorical. The word is ultimately Germanic in origin, though like so many words of 14th century vintage, it came to English by way of Anglo-French. The resemblance between herald and the name Harold is not coincidental: Harold is a modern form of Chariovalda, the name of a 1st century C.E. leader of the Batavi, a tribe who lived on the lower Rhine. The Germanic source of Chariovalda, haria-, is also the source of herald.
Example: "Trumpets herald the arrival of the players at the arena." — Simon Webster, The New Yorker, 14 Dec. 2023

THE ODD WORD

Numinous

Being both fearful and awed by what is before you.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Third time's a charm

Meaning: When you use the expression 'Third time's a charm' you mean that the third time something is attempted, luck is sure to result. The phrase is also used as an actual good luck charm that's spoken just before you try something for the third time.
Origin: The origin of phrase 'Third time's a charm' is probably ancient, as things that come in sets of three have often been associated with good luck due to their similarity with Holy Trinity of Christianity. The first time a similar phrase was seen in print was in 1839, in Elizabeth Barrett Browning's work Letters Addressed to R.H. Horne: "The luck of third adventure is proverbial."
Example: "I sure hope he doesn't strike out again." Answer: "Maybe he'll get lucky. After all, third time's a charm!

After receiving the felicitation, Yaduveer said, ever since he was elected, he has been receiving honours on behalf of the people, keeping the promise he had made during the campaign.

Former Vice-Chancellor of University of Mysore Prof. K.S. Rangappa, who presided said, "The Maharajas of Mysore have contributed to Indian culture and the UoM that was founded by the Maharajas, stands testimony to their encouragement for education. During my tenure as VC, I have made efforts towards taking the institutions founded by the Maharajas to further height."

Heaping praises, Prof. Rangappa said, "we are blessed to have elected a personality like Yaduveer to the Parliament. We have seen several evil minded politicians, but with the election of Yaduveer, good time has begun."
